HISTORY

Construction Date:	1914	Source:	Doncaster
Architect:	Unknown
Builder:	Unknown

Anglican services had been held at Moonyoonooka as early as 1886. A wooden church was built at Moonyoonooka in 1914 and deicated by Archbishop Riley on 8 November 1914. The building was sold during World War II and replaced with a former army hut in 1948. The first service was held in the new church on Christmas Day 1948 and the building was dedicated by Bishop Frewer on 21 August 1949. The last service was held in this church on 11 August 1963. The building was sold in October 1966.

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

The Moonyoonooka Anglican Church Site has high significance as a site of community worship in the Moonyoonooka district. The site also provides evidence of the increasing importance of Moonyyooka as a regional settlement from the 1890s and the consequent decline of the community since the 1960s.

MANAGEMENT CATEGORY

Level of Significance: HISTORIC SITE: The site has historic significance for its previous use and its role in the historical development of the locality.
Management Recommendation: Proposed development may need to have regard to possible archaeological evidence remaining on the site. Recognise and interpret the site if feasible. This may be achieved through a variety of methods including, but not limited to, signage, public art, paving treatment and landscaping as well as design treatment of any new development which reflects the former use of the site.
