2. Keys to the City

The granting of the Keys to the City is a symbolic presentation, which represents the highest honour that a city can confer on an individual or an organisation.

The tradition of using a key dates back to medieval times, when many cities were enclosed within walled fortifications. The key symbolised the political relationship between a city and the King/Queen or ruler of the land on which the city was located. When that ruler visited the city for the first time after assuming power, the authorities would formally greet him/her at the gates and hand over a key to signify that the city was now under his/her control. The key would then be returned by the ruler to the city authorities to acknowledge that he/she intended to respect the political authority of those who administered the city.

The Keys to the City of Greater Geraldton is traditionally presented by the Mayor at a civic ceremony to acknowledge the contribution of an individual or organisation in furthering the ideals of the City, or to recognise outstanding achievement in sport or humanitarian work at an international level.
