Located on the eastern outskirts of the Walkaway Townsite, this small Gothic style stone church has a steeply pitched gable roof. A small entry porch is attached to the north elevation. The church features buttresses to walls and rendered window and door surrounds which enhance the narrow arched windows. There is a metal cross to the roof apex and coloured glass windows to the gable ends. Some pointing is evident to the stonework.

HISTORY

Construction Date:	1903	Source:	Foundation Stone
Architect:	J.T. Hobbs
Builder:	J. Petrie

By 1900 an Anglican Church was required on the Back Flats. Joseph Rumble donated a block of land to the east of the Walkaway School (Place No. 147) and J.T. Hobbs prepared the design for the Walkaway Church in 1902. The church was built by J. Petrie using stone from Surrey Farm (Place No. 117). The foundation stone was laid on 14 June 1903 by Minnie Edith Wilkins, the wife of the priest in charge of the Greenough Anglican parish. The Holy Trinity Church was consecrated by Bishop Riley on 20 September 1903. Through community fund raising the church debt was paid off by 1911. The church was extensively renovated in 1962 and in 1978 money was bequeathed by Mrs Amy Groser for its upkeep.

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

Holy Trinity Church has considerable historic and social significance for its connection with the religious activities of the local community for over ninety years. The place has considerable aesthetic value and is a good example of a small rural Gothic style church. Together with the adjacent former school teacher's residence and the Old Walkaway School, the church is an essential component of the built fabric of Walkaway and the Shire.
