

Organisational Structure

The City's administrative function is broken up into four Departments which report to the Chief Executive Officer. The four Departments are; Corporate Services, Development Services, Community and Culture, and Infrastructure Services. To help you gain an understanding of which Department your new branch sits under, the City's organisational structure is included below.

